NO FEE TO ENTER FESTIVAL PARADE

Chairman of Committee on Industrial Pageant Calls Attention to Fact it Costs Nothing.

HALF HUNDRED ALREADY IN

Arrangements Being Made to Decorate City in Advance For Festival and Horse Show.

The industrial parade committee of fall festival and horse show wants to emphasize the fact that there is no "red tape" surrounding the industrial parade. No entries are made and no fees are charged for entering. A prospective entry does not even need to signify his intentions of participating, but it is desired by the committee that all who contemplate taking part will notify the committee so that it will be possible to get some conception of the size of the parade before it takes place.

Walter Easley, chairman of the committee, has over a half hundred pledged to enter the parade and over half of that number are those who did not take part last year. Some of them already pledged to enter will have more than one showing so that it is easily to be seen that the parade will be a more pretentious affair than last year. Even then it exceeded the expectations of the most pretentious affair than last year. Even then it exceeded the expectations of the most optimistic.

Plans are going forward rapidly for the horse show and fall festival. Harry W. Lewis, professional decorator, is calling on the merchants to get their contracts to decorate their places of business for the event. The decorations will be put up early so that the city will get the benefit of the advertisement for them.

Negotiations are being carried on with the commercial organizations of Indianapolis and Cincinnati relative to a visit of their wholesale trade departments here during the week of October 25 to 30. The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce has been invited for Tuesday, the twenty-sixth, and Indianapolis for Wednesday, the twenty-seventh. Cincinnati has already sent word that it will likely send a delegation in a special train and although no definite word has been received from Indianapolis, it is practically settled that they will come because they have made tentative arrangements for special cars over the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction line.

RED SOX SPLIT THEIR SHARE

Each Played on World's Champion Team Receives $3,779.98.

(By United Press.)
Boston, Oct. 14.—The Red Sox received their share of the world series money today. The new world series champions gathered in President Lannin's office at Fenway park and split the pile of the five game series.

Each player received a check of the five game series.

Each player received a check calling for $3,779.98. As has been the custom for the last several years, in which either the Braves or the Red Sox participated in the world series, tokens of appreciation for doing "hero" stunts were extended.

A nine pound boy was born to the wife of Carl Gunning this morning at their home in West Tenth street.

UNWRITTEN LAW FAILS

James Henry of Columbus, Ind., Sentenced For Murder Today.

(By United Press.)
Columbus, Ind., Oct. 14.—The plea of the unwritten law failed to gain an acquittal for James Henry. The jury today returned a verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter. He will be sentenced to from two to fourteen years at the state prison. Henry shot and killed Thomas Chaver near midnight when he found Chaver in the Henry home.

BLIND MAN HELD FOR "BOOTLEGGING"

John Wainseott Pleads Not Guilty and His Trial is Set For Next Tuesday Afternoon.

WHISKEY IS FOUND ON HIM

John Wainseott, a blind man, was arraigned before Mayor Behout this morning on a charge of "bootlegging" and entered a plea of not guilty. The trial was set for next Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. Wainseott told Mayor Behout that he wanted a change of judge and this request may be granted him.

When arrested last night at the traction station, Wainseott had nine half-pint bottles of whiskey in a shoe box. He had been to Connersville and claims that the whiskey was for his own use. Wainseott offered resistance when arrested and struck at Chief Rosencrance with his cane.

Wainseott has caused the police more or less trouble since he has been in the city. About a month ago he was stopped from gathering paper because of his vulgar language and since then has made frequent threats to engage in the "bootlegging" business. Wainseott claims to be blind, but there are many who believe he can see better than he will admit.

TRIAL SET DOWN FOR TODAY CONTINUED

Criminal Trial in Which Wm Monks is Charged With Practicing Medicine Without License Next.

JAMES DANIELS PAYS A FINE

The case of Arvel Herkless against the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, set for trial today in the circuit court, was continued on motion of Herkless, and as a result there was not much going on there. The case was continued at the costs of the plaintiff.

The criminal case against William Monks, charged with practicing without a license, will come to trial Friday. The state board of medical examiners is backing the suit and it is similar to others filed in different parts of the state against the chiropractors.

The case against James Daniels, charged with public indecency, was dismissed this morning and the case remanded to the mayor's court from which it came on an appeal. Daniels will pay his fine amounting to $5 and costs. This action was taken after the court had overruled a motion to quash.

Director of Historical Commission Calls Attention to Local Chairman of Activity.

ARRANGING FOR CENTENNIAL

Connersville is Projecting Erection of 60-Concrete Shaft For Celebration

W. C. Woodward, director of the Indiana Historical Commission which was created to direct the celebration of the state centennial next year, has sent to John A. Tittsworth, chairman of the Rush county organization, a news letter telling of the activity throughout the state in preparation for the observance of the century birthday of Indiana.

The plan of the commission is to hold celebrations in the counties of the state first and then combine them in an immense pageant in Indianapolis during the fall of 1916.

Connersville is projecting the erection of a sixty foot concrete shaft electrically lighted, as a part of the Fayette County observance of the Centennial. The Connersville News says: "The Centennial Spirit is in the air. The whole of Hoosierdom, next year, is to be turned to a great celebration ground. Up and down the rich soil of the territory novel and striking means will be taken to show that this, that and the other locality wishes to lay its tribute at the feet of old Indiana. That a tower surmounted by great blazing electric lights, would do this beautifully, and would, moreover, stand as a permanent signpost at the city's threshold, strikes the merchants and city patriots who are encouraging the plan as plain and appealing. They will prosecute their work about the city, and it is sure that the material, as well as the sentimental support of the influential people of city and county will be theirs."

Max Erhmann, the Terre Haute poet, is to write the words and Chester L. Fidler, head of the music department of the public schools, is to compose the music of an Anthem that will be sung by the school children of Terre Haute when the Centennial is observed next year. Representatives of the patriotic, fraternal and business organizations of the city held a meeting at Wiley High School recently to take preliminary steps toward the organization for next year's celebration. Terre Haute, as a town, is forty-one days older than is Indiana as a State, and Terre Haute under Four Flags", Spanish, French, English and American—is to be made one of the features of the Centennial week celebration.

Wheeler McMillen of Fountain County is setting a good example for other chairmen, in preparing an address along Centennial lines for use in his county.

Among the new Centennial chairmen secured are: Senator W. A. Yantling, Shelby County; author of the bill creating the Indiana Historical Commission; Mayor Jas. O. Batehlor of Marion, Grant County; Attorney Fred E. McClellan of Muncie, Delaware; Attorney Will Hough Greenfield, Hancock; Attorney John H. Underwood of Bedford, Lawrence; Prof. O. H. Williams, Bloomington, Monroe; Capt. L. C. Baird, Jeffersonville, Clark.

Vice-President Marshall has presented the Commission with an interesting piece of Hoosier literature in a long and striking poem on Indiana, written nearly three quarters of a century ago by Isaac H. Julian, brother of George W. Julian. It came to Mr. Marshall from a friend in California.

FORTY-ONE DIE IN LONDON RAID

Revised Figures Show Air Attack by Germans Most Costly in Lives Lost of War.

FOURTEEN SOLDIERS VICTIMS

Newspapers Comment Bitterly, Declaring London Thought it Was Protected.

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 14.—Forty-one persons were killed and one hundred wounded in Wednesday night's air raid by German Zeppelins on London, it was officially announced late this afternoon.

Fourteen of the killed and thirteen of the wounded were soldiers. All of the others were civilians.

Including the latest attack, there have been one hundred and sixty-seven persons and four hundred and thirty-six wounded in the Zeppelin raids on England thus far.

One Zeppelin, the report stated, was seen to heel over and drop to a lower altitude while the raid was in progress.

The raid was by far the most costly in the loss of human lives of any ever made by the German airships on London thus far in the war.

This afternoon's London newspapers commented bitterly on the raid to the effect that although the authorities had reported they were prepared to protect London, the city really had no protection except the wind and rain.

Earlier reports placed the number of dead at eight and the wounded at thirty-four.

Austrian War Office Says Austro-Germans Are Making Steady Progress Through Serbia.

SOUTH ADVANCE DELAYED

(By United Press.)
Vienna, Oct. 14.—Austro-German progress through Serbia continued today despite fierce resistance, the Austrian war office announced.

The invaders have captured several more trenches south of Belgrade, said the report, and it was added that Serbian counter attacks made in attempts to recover lost positions were repulsed.

It was acknowledged that the Teutonic advance to the southward is being delayed by the stubborn Serbian defense.

Marion, O., Oct. 14.—A. B. Crow of Huntington, Ind., Erie engineer, was acquitted by a jury today on a second degree murder charge for the killing of his brother-in-law, John Schoenell, also of Huntington.

Crow said he shot Schoenell in self defense after they had quarreled over the division of some property in Indiana.

MUST BE PAID AT RATE $13,000 A DAY

Taxes Coming in Showing a Force at Treasurer's Office Has Visions of a Big Rush.

LAST DAY NOVEMBER FIRST

With only fifteen days remaining to pay the fall installments of taxes, the force at the county treasurer's office has figured it out that an average of $13,000 a day must be taken in between now and November 1, if all the money that is due the county is paid.

The last day for paying the fall installment is November 1, which this year happens to be the first Monday in the month as well as the first day. The payment of the fall installment has been exceedingly slow this year and the treasurer's office has visions of one big rush as the final day approaches.

BRITISH NOTE DELAYED

Protest Against Interference in Trade is Still Held Up.

Paris, Oct. 14.—"Italy will participate fully in the allies' plan," declared Premier Viviani speaking in the senate this afternoon.

HAIR RESTORERS TABOED

(By United Press.)
Winsted, Conn., Oct. 14.—An aviator peering down into the streets of Winsted today would see what looked like brigades of polished eggs with feet winking back and forth beneath them parading up and down.

But if the aviator dropped down and inquired why the marching eggs, he would learn that it is only the annual jamboree of the American Bald Head club.

This convention faces what it considers a profoundly grave situation. Discussion and settlement of the case will be the principal business of the session.

FORCES ISSUE IN ELECTION CASES

Judge Eichhorn Allows Prosecutor Ten Days to Decide What Future Course Will be

DEFENSE WANTS EARLY TRIAL

Three Jurors Voted For Conviction of Bell on First Ballot—Four Ballots Taken

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 14.—Special Judge Eichhorn forced to an issue today the policies that the state will adopt in the cases of over one hundred men indicted with Mayor Joseph E. Bell on election corruption conspiracy charges.

He called all interested attorneys into court and said that because of business at home he wished to know what the state would do. He finally allowed Prosecutor Rucker ten days in which to decide on the course the state would pursue.

Attorney Ryan, for the defense, demanded that the court set the date for an immediate trial of Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman, one of the indicted men, "that the stain of the indictment might be removed from him."

Prosecutor Rucker said that he was worn out and asked time. Judge Eichhorn said that it was not within his province to grant Ryan's request.

Mayor Bell was found not guilty yesterday afternoon on the fourth ballot. Three jurors first voted for conviction, it was stated.

There were indications today that the prosecution might ask that the other cases be dismissed.

The court called before him today Ernest Roeder and James (Bud) Gibson, two confessed conspirators who testified for the state.

He placed Roeder under bond and told both to appear in court Tuesday at 9 a. m. They will probably be sentenced then. Gibson is under $2,500 bond.

The court heard the testimony of Attorneys Ryan and Spann for Bell concerning what fee would be proper for Deputy Prosecutor Joseph Roach. Both testified they thought it should be "at least $5,000." The court allowed Roach that sum. Roach worked two months on the Bell trial. Roach will not take part in any election trials to come.

John Rodemeyer of Canaan, one of the club's most bald and venerable members; (its very founder, in fact), is reported to have had dealings with a hair-retoring person. The most drastic punishment, some of the outraged members say, (possibly expulsion from the club and relegation to the gloomy vale of hairdom), will be visited upon him if the charge is proved.

To forestall a repetition of the cabaret girl's insult, (they played "I Want to go Back" in pity-pats on the banqueting bald one last year), Deacon Elliott B. Bronson of the Winchester Congregational church has been appointed chairman of the entertainment committee.

There will be many hairless contests. Prizes will go to the baldest head, the tallest, shortest, fattest, shiniest, pinkest, whitest, reddest,

Not Popular Method

Addressing a Young Men's Republican Club out West, ex-President Taft has sought to formulate the terms upon which Progressives may reunite with the Republican party. They will be welcomed back, he says but there is no place in Republicanism for some of the ideas which they have held.

Mr. Taft's intimation is that returning Progressives are to be held up on dock, like returning tourists from Europe, while their baggage and their persons are searched for smuggled goods. We doubt if this method will prove popular.

Heretofore there has been no running of the gauntlet, no scrutiny of credentials for men who have sought affiliation with the Republican party. Republicanism has been inclusive in its scope. The party has been big enough to contain both Mr. Taft and Senator LaFollette, for example. There have been, and are, certain essential principles on which Republicanism is founded and to which all Republicans adhere. Orderly constitutional government, protection through tariffs to American labor and capital, sturdy defense of American rights, an adequate and satisfactory currency system—these are the essentials of Republican faith since the days of Fremont. Whoever subscribes to these declarations and who evidences his faith by support of the Republican ticket is a Republican nationally speaking. These things will be found not only in national Republican platforms but in State Republican platforms as well; while in the latter will be many other things of local application which in no wise detract from the quality of national Republicanism. For instance, a Republican in Oregon will hold to many principles—for Oregon—which a Republican in Rhode Island never has subscribed to. Yet both are Republicans, as Mr. Taft will have to admit.

We do not believe in any other test for Republicanism. Especially we cannot admit the right of any one man—President, ex-President or any other man or any group of men to say who shall enter or re-enter the Republican party or upon what terms. Any Progressive who wishes to join the Republican party can come in without the indignity of being frisked for concealed principles. Is he a protectionist? Does he believe in a strong foreign policy? Does he favor an adequate national defense? The man who supports these principles is a Republican by all the tests which anyone has the right to impose. In no other way can Republicanism live and grow; in no other way has Republicanism lived and grown. The doors of the Republican party swing inward and neither Mr. Taft nor any other man can close them or narrow the entrance. Those Progressives have already come in have been warmly welcomed. A like welcome awaits the others who are on the way.

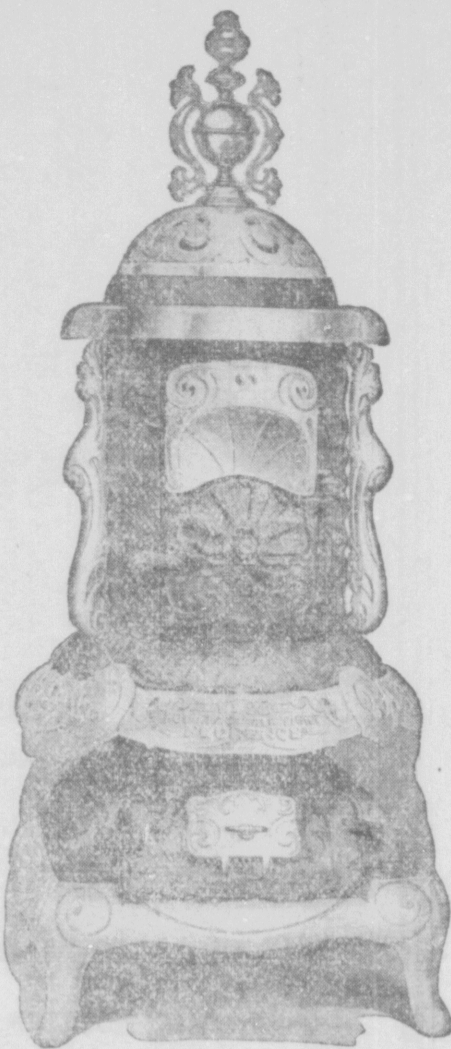

Current Comments

Is Wilson Alone Right.

(Portland Oregonian.)

President Wilson should remember the fate of Cleveland and beware. He undertook to "bull things through" Congress, and, though he succeeded there, he split his party and sentenced it to twenty years' purgatory under Bryan's leadership. Mr. Wilson may bull his ship-purchase bill through Congress, but his party is very likely to split on the question, and both he and his party will surely be punished for the flaccid which will as surely follow. There is no escape for a President and a party which go directly counter to public opinion.

That public opinion is opposed to the ship-purchase bill is proved by the overwhelming adverse vote of the Chambers of Commerce of the United States. These bodies are no mere handfuls of leaders in business

The above $5000 offer has been made for the past twelve years, every place where the FLORENCE has been exhibited. It stands to reason that if any dealer or stove manufacturer could produce a stove that would do the work that the Florence will do they would not only have claimed the $5000, but would have gotten the benefit of letting the people know what a great stove they have. Come and let us show you why and how the FLORENCE burns the smoke and gases that enables you to get steady heat as if you used natural gas.

They are composed of the great body of business men of their respective communities, as is the Portland Chamber with nearly 5000 members. These men are of all parties. There is among them doubtless as large a proportion of Democrats as there is among the population at large. These Democratic business men would naturally incline to support a measure fathered by the leader of their party. There business sense, applied to public affairs, compels them to oppose that measure.

Do the President and the Secretary of the Treasury presume to say that they are right and that the composite business sense of the country is wrong? Are they the repositories of all the wisdom in the country? The political support which they have received as a guide to the public judgment, for it comes from the thick-and-thin supporters of the Administration. A safer guide is the opposition of those independent Democrats who refuse to be bound to the inherent folly of ship-purchase and whose judgment cannot be swayed, nor their voices silenced, nor their votes controlled by party dictation.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.

Whig High Tide.

Probably the largest and certainly the most picturesque campaign in Indiana history, marked the high tide of Whig success in the state. It began in 1835 with William Henry Harrison as its inspiration and ended in 1840 in elevating him to the presidency. Wild enthusiasm and mad fervor, featured by barbecues and parades in honor of the heroes of Tippecanoe, grew to a veritable "delirium of sentiment." The Harrison presidential wave carried Indiana for him by more than 13,000 and elected the Whig candidate for Governor, Samuel Bigger, by more than 9,000 plurality.

The newspapermen were banqueted tonight by the commercial club while the road machine exhibitors dined at the country club.

Scientists discover the cause of bleeding gums and loose teeth

The old idea that bleeding gums and loose teeth (symptoms of pyorrhea) are due to little pieces of tartar or bone under the gums, has been exploded. Scientists have made the astounding discovery that this disease is caused by a germ which is found in every human mouth.

TEN ROUND GO AT GARY TONIGHT

Frank Izzo Meets Artie Armstrong in Bout That is Attracting Much Attention

CALLED "FLY WEIGHT" CLASS

Winner Will Get Match With Zulu Kid of St. Louis, Who Has Beaten Everyone in Sight

(By United Press.) Chicago, Oct. 14.—A ten round go at Gary, Ind., tonight between Frankie Izzo and Artie Armstrong weighing in ringside at 110 pounds, has attracted wide attention among fight fans throughout the middle west and it is predicted that plans will shortly be perfected for a championship bout in the "fly weight" class.

Wherever the followers of the game congregate here, the term "fly weight" is being heard more frequently of late. Izzo's work has won for him a big following and he is touted as the best man in the ring today at 110 pounds.

The winner of tonight's bout will have to fight the Zulu Kid of St. Louis, who has cleaned up everything south of Chicago's boundary in the new mosquito fleet. If Izzo wins from Armstrong and it is confidently believed that he is the better of the two, a bout between him and the Zulu Kid would practically decide the fly weight championship.

Since Izzo went ten rounds with Ertel at Milwaukee and nearly got the shade from the new Bantam weight, he has not met a man who was near his equal. Izzo's manager Harry James has announced his willingness to sign up with any fighter who can make 112.

SINGLE G. TAKES NEW RACE MARK

Curt Gosnell is Warned Not to Lay up or Something Worse Than Fine Will Await Him

HARRIE JONES IN THE MONEY

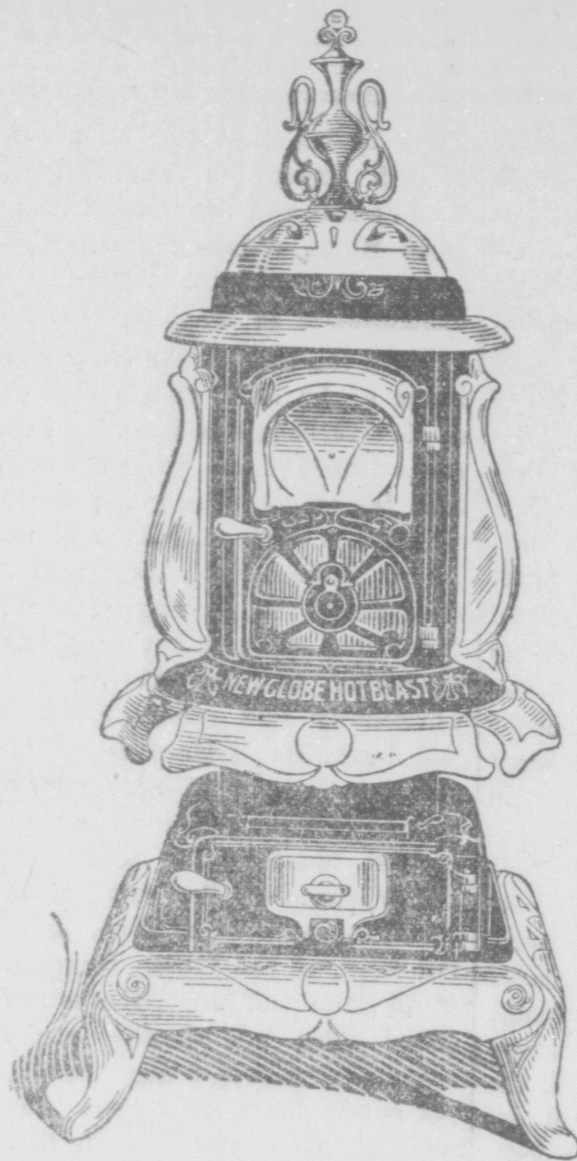

A warning of the judges issued to Curt Gosnell yesterday at Lexington, Ky., evidently had its effects for Single G., went out and won the Cumberland Stakes, $2,000, for pacers eligible to the 2:05 class June 1, last, taking the first heat in 2:02 1/4 and giving the Cambridge City pacer a new mark.

The judges told Gosnell they wanted no such performance as Single G put up last week and intimated that any continued effort to keep Single G good for the 2:04 class next season would meet with stronger punishment than a fine for laying up heats.

In the first heat Beth Clark went out and carried Single G a merry clip to the three quarters, where she was done for, while Fay Richmond, driven by Harrie Jones of this city, paced into the place. Single G won the heat easily in 2:02 1/4. This showed him up and strengthened the opinion of those who believed he could have won last week. Fay Richmond finished fourth in the second heat and third in the final heat, giving the local man third money. Single G was the favorite at $50 to $10 for Fay Richmond and $10 for the field. He paced the second heat in 2:03 1/4 and the third heat in 2:03.

STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that they run but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't tell Johnson's Drug Store that you want your money back and they will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Miona has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made.

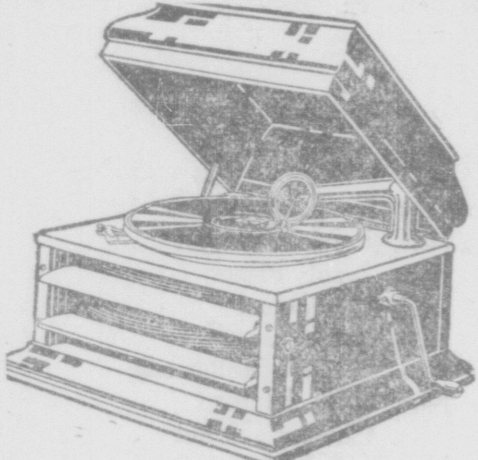

Johnson's Drug Store give their personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that they sell. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot
reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness,
and that is by constitutional remedies.
Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed
you have a rumbling sound or imperfect
hearing, and when it is entirely closed,
deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this
tube restored to its normal condition,
hearing will be destroyed forever; and
cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh,
which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

A STUDY IN INDIANA HISTORY

Miss Genevieve Brown, instructor
in history in the Rushville high school, read a paper on "A Study of Indiana History" at the last institute of city teachers, and it was of special interest in view of the fact that the Hoosier centennial will be celebrated next year. The paper follows:

It seems all together fitting that
the centennial birthday of our state
should receive the special attention
of every inhabitant of this great commonwealth, and that we school
folks, in particular should give the matter our most earnest attention.

Having in mind the observance of the centennial in some permanent
form, the legislature of 1911 created
a centennial commission to recommend a site and suggest plans
for a permanent memorial in the way of some building for general
state use. The commission decided upon a library and museum. I thought the plan was applauded almost universally throughout the state, the legislatures of 1913 and 15 refused
to grant sufficient funds for a suitable memorial of that kind.

However, that does not mean that
this state cannot have a celebration
of its birthday and perhaps an ever
more lasting benefit accrue from it than from a building or a fair. The centennial commission recommended
on historical and educational celebration and that is what I propose to outline in a brief way.

"The history, achievement and
growth of our state are inspirational.
What of Indiana anyhow? Has our commonwealth or unworthy past?
Was it a small matter to struggle
with the privations of pioneer
life, to brave the terrors of wild beasts and barbarous tribes? Is it
of no moment that in all the national
wars of the past century Indiana
has played a noble part? Is it a fitting matter that in these hundred years endless forests and swamps
have been supplanted by fertile fields and prosperous cities, with humming factories and busy commerce? Who can contemplate without swelling pride the transition
from the log school house to our unexcelled public school system, the growth of our college and flowering
out of the simplicity and culture of our Hoosier life, a literature to which all the world pays homage."

Surely a consistent, and interesting
study of Indiana's past and present
cannot help but prove beneficial and
be the means of promoting a more intelligent appreciation of our achievement among us, and beget a deeper love among us for Indiana.

Let us divide Indiana's political history into four periods for our study—First the Pioneer life. Three great nations were contending for
the possession of the new world;
Spain had colonized about half of Mexico—England had planted her first permanent colonies in Va. and Mass.—France went further north,
and made her settlements along the St. Lawrence. The object of each nation was to gain a foothold in the land and the colonists were willing to leave their homes and friends
endure unimaginable hardships to come to a new world of which they knew nothing, because they dreamed
romantic dreams of political independence of riches easily obtainable
in an exchange of the cheap European merchandise for valuable furs
and other Indian commodities.

The French bearing the banner of their great king Louis the fourteenth followed the St. Lawrence to the Great Lakes finally working their way down into the Ohio and Miss.
valleys. In the course of time, we are not certain, but early, probably about 1660 some of these wandering
French traders, came down the Wabash and other Indiana streams,
coming in their canoes, bartering
trinkets, blankets and "fire-water"
for furs. Robert Cavalier, Sieur de la Salle, the famous French explorer,
is the first white man of whose visit to Indiana we have record. He was trying to reach the Miss., river,
which he believed emptied into the Pacific Ocean, thus giving a short
and easy route to China and Japan.
He went down the Ohio river, entirely past our state in 1669-70 but
was finally deserted by his companions who had become weary of the hardships of the journey and had slipped off in the night leaving their leader alone and unprotected in a great wilderness. He eventually reached the French settlements in Canada and undaunted by the hardships of his first trip he made a second expedition in 1671. This time he followed the Great Lakes to Lake Mich., crossing the northwest corner of our state. Again he was unsuccessful in reaching the Miss.

From the time of the early expeditions of La Salle to his expedition
of 1679 there are no recorded expeditions into Indiana yet we are sure that fur traders were going down its streams in their canoes, and missionary fathers with their zeal still fired from the passing of the Reformation, were enduring untold hardships to raise the cross of Christianity and celebrate mass in this boundless wilderness of which our state was a part. Shut your eyes and let your imagination picture that earliest pioneer life. The country and wilderness, the only mode of
travel by canoe or on foot; no maps,
the word of the Indian being taken
at all times and how often he proved false! The life of the exploring party was a rough, hard one, and yet surely there must have been an unspeakable charm in their life after all. To float all day in a canoe down these beautiful clear Indiana
rivers with their high, heavy timbered bluffs, and at night draw up to shore and make camp by some cold,
flowing spring; with game and fish
supply unlimited; the thrill of discovery and exploration always upon
one; surely even the Pioneer's life
could not have been all hardships.

In 1680 La Salle started on the expedition which was to prove successful. Reaching the mouth of the Miss., April 9—1682, he took possession of the whole vast country in the name of his king Louis XIV.
After La Salle's explorations the French planned a chain of forts,
which they hoped to extend along
the entire route from Quebec to Louisiana. Three of these forts were built in Indiana—the dates are uncertain. On the Wabash river
four miles southwest of the present
city of Lafayette—Fort Ouiaton was erected. Post Onabache was farther down the river, standing where Vincennes now stands. The other post, Fort Miamis stood on the site of the present city of Ft.
Wayne.

I shall not go on into the English
conquest of this French territory
though really with that the most entertaining of Indiana's pioneer
chapter begins. Think of it I have not told thing concerning the remarkable expedition of Geo. Rogers Clark and his ultimate capture of Ft. Vincennes, nor have I mentioned those blood curdling days of Indiana massacres; nor the events of that great Indiana battle of Tippecanoe. Surely there are many things of interest
for us here in the Pioneer Period
that we have become a little rusty
over, or even never have known.

The Period of Settlement. Who of us was not fascinated as we listened
to our grandparents tell of the log cabin days of Indiana. The pioneer settler is always a splendid
type, for cowards do not venture
as he must, and the selfish will not give up what he must sacrifice. So he is always a man of courage and a man who dares. The early settler of Indiana was of this class. They came from the south and east, many of them sons of good families who wished to try their fortunes in a new country, many of them from the south were poor, who had never had a chance because of the slave labor.

They were however often men of courage and ability and needed only the opportunity to make good. The cosmopolitan character of the early population of Indiana undoubtedly had much to do with the present
greatness of our state. I have listened with bated breath, to the stories
of these forefathers of ours, of how they came some of them in covered springless wagons pulled by oxen over trails that were paths through the wilderness, no bridges, all streams had to be forded which was not only a dangerous proceedings but took an immense amount of time. Others came in flat boats,
which perhaps was an easier method
of travel in those days than by wagon. But no matter by what way
they came, these early settlers came at the peril of their lives because of Indian hostility. Does it ever make you blush a little for your complaints against life, as you ride
about in a luxurious Pullman or in automobile over splendid roads when you compare your lot with these who went before you in this state? The houses were made of logs, the interiors were rough, but were usually homelike. The floor was of clay, and most cabins boasted one small window made of greased paper. The fire place used for both cooking

and heating, purposes occupied one side of the room and was usually large enough to stand in. The furniture was roughly homemade,
most crude and unusually very uncomfortable, I could go on and on in the description of that early life.
You have heard your parents tell
of their struggle with the ague,
haven't you, of the various home
remedies administered that were almost worse than the disease. Yet
there were the husking bees the house raisings and the apple paring parties. The life of the settler was not all hardships. There are a number of interesting topics historically in the period of settlement. The making of the constitution under the Coryden elm. The founding of Indianapolis and the transfer of the capital from Coryden to Indianapolis. The founding of Indiana university. The early methods of travel and transportations might be found especially interesting.

The third historic period is the one of slavery and the civil war. No
state in the union was a more glorious history than ours in that period.
Our archives are wonderfully rich
in interesting material for study of the Civil war. I think perhaps I personally am a little more interested in
that than any other of these divisions of Indiana's history. I believe it the most thrilling period of all history in all nations, and how sad it is that so few people know anything of their own state's part in that mighty conflict. Do you know who Indiana's great war governor was? Do you know the location of Camp Morton? Do you know that many men Indiana sent to that great civil struggle? Do you know how many never came back? Do you know what part Rush county played in that war? Do you know your father's regiment, if he served in the war of the great rebellion? Have you ever read the individual experiences of any of your friends in the war? Doesn't this extract taken from the history of one of Indiana's regiment, give you a little more of the individual,
personal side of the war than you usually get from a text book. This was before the battle of Antietam.

Good cooking
made easy!

Good cooking depends as much on the range as on your skill. A cheap range or worn out stove makes cooking uncertain;
and often spoils your best efforts.

Is that fair to you, or to your family,
whose health and good humor are affected by what you serve?

The Majestic makes good cooking easy and sure. Made of charcoal iron and malle-
able iron; it stands rust and wear three times as long as ranges made of ordinary range metal. Put together with cold rivets that keep the joints
absolutely tight always, (no patty used.) Lined with extra heavy pure asbestos that holds
in the heat and reduces it onto even. Scientifically designed to maintain uniform temperature with least use of fuel;
and to circulate heat evenly
to all parts of oven. You never have to "turn the baking" in a Majestic.

The cost of a Majestic, in service, is less than that of any ordinary range. The fuel, repairs
and work it saves and the years longer that
it lasts, more than offset its little extra cost.

The health and happiness of your whole
family is effected by the range you buy.
Investigate thoroughly. Before you buy any range, come to our store and see the Majestic—we know you will want a
Majestic when you see its advantages.

The 15 gallon
all copper
reservoir
boils water as quickly as a kettle on a stove top; oven
door lowers onto heavy
braces; oven rack stays
level, under load, when pulled out. Reservoir
flush with stove top have aluminum lids.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look
Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is that I give more buggy value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right. I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formally sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra $10.00. If you did, remember when you need a buggy look around. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to figure out how it is done, and when you get ready to buy a buggy, buy where the majority buy, and save.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft-brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

TWO ACCIDENTS IN AGRICULTURE

Out of 1,788 Reported to New Industrial Board First Month, Small Number Were on Farms.

AUTO MANUFACTURING LEADS

Classification of Causes Reveals That Many Mishaps Were Due to Stepping on Nails.

Farmers will be interested to know that out of the 1,788 industrial accidents in Indiana reported to the new state industrial board under the first month's operation of the workmen's compensation act, only two of them were agricultural accidents. Although farmers are required to report accidents to the board, they are exempted from the law.

Employees of automobile manufacturing concerns suffered the most accidents, 146 being injured. The steam railroads caused 145 accidents, representing the second largest number of accidents attributed to any one industry. One hundred and fifteen coal mine employees were injured. Through a misunderstanding of the law, the electric railways failed to make reports of their accidents for September, but it is believed that these accidents were numerous.

The classification of the causes of injuries shows that sixty-eight persons were injured by stepping on nails, that 185 were struck by falling objects, that twenty-five were injured by electricity, that thirty-four miners were hurt by falling coal, slate and shale, that gas explosions caused fifteen accidents; that eighty-four persons were injured by slipping and stumbling, that 111 were hurt by hand tools, including hammers and knives; fifty-one persons were hurt by being struck by motor cars and other vehicles, twelve were injured in fires, forty-five were hurt by falls from ladders and scaffolds, twenty-nine persons suffered injuries from animal bites, kicks and runaways and fifteen were hurt in cranking automobiles. Many accidents resulted from the operation of machinery of various kinds.

The report also reveals that two persons suffered the amputation of arms, that two lost a leg and three a foot. Four suffered the loss of their sight. Thirty-one suffered the amputation of fingers. Nine persons suffered fractured arms and fifteen fractured legs. Six suffered fractured skulls. One man's neck was broken, and another suffered a broken back. Burns and scalds caused many accidents.

The oldest person injured was 73 years old. Four of the injured were 72 years old. Twenty-six of the injured persons were 16 years old and under. Fifty-five per cent of the injured employees were between the ages of 20 and 30 years.

The wage was not reported as to 400 employees. Those receiving more than $20 a week numbered 132, so far as reported, and those receiving less than $10 a week numbered 285.

Twenty-eight accidents were reported to women and girls whose ages range from 16 to 55 years old. The highest weekly wage received among this class of employees was $11 and the lowest $4. The average weekly wage was $7.28.

The sum of $560.09 was paid within the month to injured employees. Forty compensation agreements were entered into and approved by the industrial board. Two of these agreements were in fatal cases and for a payment period of 300 weeks each. Of these forty compensation agreements five were cases, including the two fatal cases, in which the period of payment was determinable and in such cases a total liability of $8,303.90 was assumed.

CONFERENCE ON PREPAREDNESS

Notable Gathering of Prominent Men to Discuss Efficiency of Country's Defense

ADDRESS BY ESTABROOK

Sign "In Time of Peace Prepare for War" Greets Visitors—Two Day Session

(By United Press.)

Davenport, Ia., Oct. 14.—"In time of peace prepare for war!" This emblazoned sign greeted the most notable gathering of prominent men ever brought together in this city, at the opening today of the Mid-West Conference on Preparedness. United States Senators representatives, professional and business men from nine middle-western states were here all keenly bent upon forwarding the movement for a greater efficiency of the country's defenses.

Henry D. Estabrook of New York, whose recent address on Preparedness, delivered at Seattle, attracted nation-wide attention, is on the program with United States Senators Kenyon of Iowa, Sherman of Illinois and Norris of Nebraska will also deliver addresses.

From the principal cities of Illinois, Minnesota and Nebraska will come well-known business and professional men. Invitations extended to congressional representatives in these states have been accepted. During the two-day session, a number of luncheons and dinners will be held, at each of which the views of the prominent men and their ideas on improving the country's defenses will be heard. A different set of speakers will be heard at each session.

"TRIANGLE CASE" TO GET HEARING

Clara Mohr, Ogla Mohr and Joseph Mohr Will Tell Troubles to Chicago Judge

MAN MARRIED TWO WOMEN

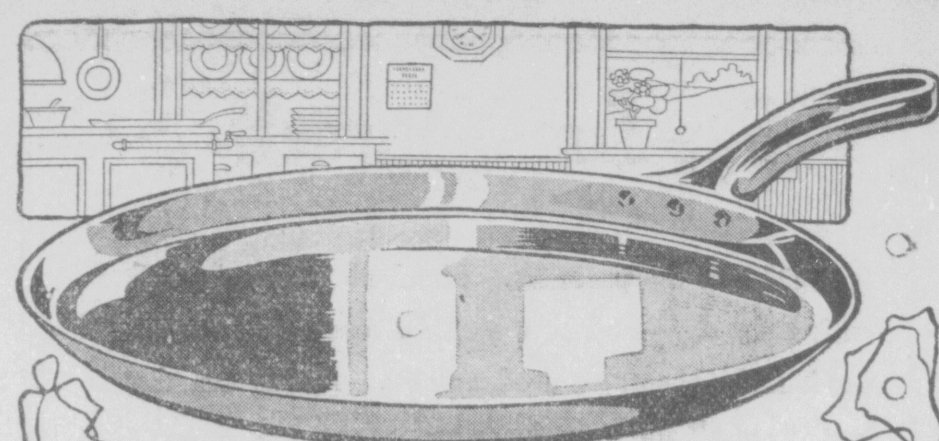

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Oct. 14.—One of the strangest of Chicago's recently numerous "triangle cases" was to be settled today by Judge John J. Rooney, at Chicago Avenue Police court. Clara Menell Mohr, Ogla Giessiel Mohr and Joseph Mohr were the defendants. Clara married Mohr in 1910. On July 30, she was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd for passing bad checks. On July 30, according to stories told by Mohr and Ogla to a United Press representative, the two went to an Indiana Gretna Green and had a marriage ceremony performed. When the first Mrs. Mohr returned to her home on September 28, last she found another wife sharing it. After a calm discussion, the three decided to continue their haven home. Ogla "Mohr" is 19 years old.

TOWN CLERKS GET NOTICE

Elections in Carthage and Glenwood on November 2.

Carthage and Glenwood will hold their town elections the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, which will be November 2, according to an opinion which has been given by the attorney general. Notices have been sent to the clerks of all incorporated towns in Indiana calling their attention to the opinion. It was made necessary because the amendment to the law passed by the last legislature did not fix a date for the elections and the day specified in the law of 1909 is the one which will be used.

DREAM OF LITTLE OLD WOMAN FADES

She is Doomed to Disappointment
Because Elyria, Colo., Will Never be More Than Tank Town.

ENGINE MAKES LAST TRIP

(By United Press.)
Denver, Colo., Oct. 14.—When they piled the wheezy and ancient little Colorado & Eastern engine on a flatcar and closed up shop at Elyria today, they struck despair to the heart of a wrinkled old woman and ended the dream of years that Elyria the tank-town, would some day be a great railroad center.

To Mary Twining the closing of the ill-starred little railroad was tragedy. The C. & E., for all her interest in it and her faith in Elyria, never prospered. The engine was the first ever used in Colorado mountains. If the financiers hadn't rowed about the C. & E., entrance to the Denver union station, Mary Twining's dream might have come true. But Elyria, the engine and Mary Twining have grown old in waiting—and now Mary knows the waiting was in vain.

For fifteen of the 40 years the wheezy engine labored between Elyria and Seranton, her son Harry was engineer and later her grandson Harry was fireman.

Now the road has "gone bust" and the engine and the two Harrys have gone to Leadville. Mary Twining will stay in Elyria.

Representative F. Davis Oakley of Hartford, who claims the distinction of never having spoken to a barber in his life, will make a speech. He has been warned not to tell any stories with hair on them. Eddie Riggs, formerly with the New York Sun and now with the New Haven railroad, will tell about skullsaps he has met.

Mrs. Dennis O'Neil, who has been seriously ill at her home in South Main street, continues about the same and little hope is held for her recovery.

"Bigger Crops in 1916" Bids Fair to Become Slogan of Farmers
in Indiana

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—With an eye to Seed Corn day, which comes tomorrow, county agents throughout Indiana were today actively engaged interesting farmers in the need of obtaining good seed corn. Backed by the recent proclamation of the governor, they announced that farmers generally were taking greater interest than formerly in the quality of seed corn.

"Bigger Crops in 1916" bids fair to become the slogan of the Indiana farmer. Urged on by the Indiana Corn Grower's association, the Indiana Grain Dealer's association, and the Indiana Banker's association, farmers are becoming interested in better farming methods.

Governor Ralston's proclamation pointed out that Indiana's corn is its greatest source of wealth, reaching the total valuation of more than $115,000,000 annually. The governor said Indiana's reputation for growing good quality corn is unsurpassed and that it is important that the quality be maintained and bettered.

The Governor endorsed the theory of Professor Christie of Purdue that fully one million bushels of seed corn should be selected in Indiana before the heavy frosts. Christie believes Indiana's corn crop can be increased by 25,000,000 bushels by the proper selection of seed corn.

offers Suits and Coats for women and misses at prices that will bear the scrutiny of comparison.

¶ There seems to be a tradition throughout the suit and coat business in larger cities that in order to interest any woman in a garment, she must be told that it is worth much more than the price she is asked to pay for it.

¶ Mauzy's suits and coats are different. No visionary or imaginary values are placed upon them. But at the same time great care is taken to see that they are worth all you pay for them, no matter what you pay nor how you make comparisons.

¶ Primarily the style of a garment is of supreme importance to the woman who wears it. Original creations command tremendous prices because of their exclusiveness. Mauzy's styles are copies and adaptations of original styles that obtain their vogue in Paris and New York.

¶ Mauzy's Woolltex suits and coats are all sold with a positive and irrevocable guarantee that every garment is guaranteed for two season's satisfactory wear and that they are all wool. This does not mean the so-called "commercial all-wool" but does mean strictly all-wool.

¶ At the present time our stock is comprehensive, embracing a splendid line of colors, fabrics and models.

NO FEE TO ENTER FESTIVAL PARADE

Chairman of Committee on Industrial Pageant Calls Attention to Fact It Costs Nothing.

HALF HUNDRED ALREADY IN

Arrangements Being Made to Decorate City in Advance For Festival and Horse Show.

The industrial parade committee of fall festival and horse show wants to emphasize the fact that there is no "red tape" surrounding the industrial parade. No entries are made and no fees are charged for entering. A prospective entry does not even need to signify his intentions of participating, but it is desired by the committee that all who contemplate taking part will notify the committee so that it will be possible to get some conception of the size of the parade before it takes place.

Walter Easley, chairman of the committee, has over a half hundred pledged to enter the parade and over half of that number are those who did not take part last year. Some of them already pledged to enter will have more than one showing so that it is easily to be seen that the parade will be a more pretentious affair than last year. Even then it exceeded the expectations of the most pretentious affair than last year. Even then it exceeded the expectations of the most optimistic.

Plans are going forward rapidly for the horse show and fall festival. Harry W. Lewis, professional decorator, is calling on the merchants to get their contracts to decorate their places of business for the event. The decorations will be put up early so that the city will get the benefit of the advertisement for them.

Negotiations are being carried on with the commercial organizations of Indianapolis and Cincinnati relative to a visit of their wholesale trade departments here during the week of October 25 to 30. The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce has been invited for Tuesday, the twenty-sixth, and Indianapolis for Wednesday, the twenty-seventh. Cincinnati has already sent word that it will likely send a delegation in a special train and although no definite word has been received from Indianapolis, it is practically settled that they will come because they have made tentative arrangements for special cars over the Indianapolis & Cincinnati traction line.

He will be sentenced to from two to fourteen years at the state prison. Henry shot and killed Thomas Chaver near midnight when he found Chaver in the Henry home.

BLIND MAN HELD FOR "BOOTLEGGING"

John Wainscott Pleads Not Guilty and His Trial is Set For Next Tuesday Afternoon.

WHISKEY IS FOUND ON HIM

John Wainscott, a blind man, was arraigned before Mayor Bebout this morning on a charge of "bootlegging" and entered a plea of not guilty. The trial was set for next Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. Wainscott told Mayor Bebout that he wanted a change of judge and this request may be granted him.

When arrested last night at the traction station, Wainscott had nine half-pint bottles of whiskey in a shoe box. He had been to Connersville and claims that the whiskey was for his own use. Wainscott offered resistance when arrested and struck at Chief Rosencrance with his cane.

Wainscott has caused the police more or less trouble since he has been in the city. About a month ago he was stopped from gathering paper because of his vulgar language and since then has made frequent threats to engage in the "bootlegging" business. Wainscott claims to be blind, but there are many who believe he can see better than he will admit.

JAMES DANIELS PAYS A FINE

The case of Arvel Herkless against the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, set for trial today in the circuit court, was continued on motion of Herkless, and as a result there was not much going on there. The case was continued at the costs of the plaintiff.

The criminal case against William Monks, charged with practicing medicine without a license, will come to trial Friday. The state board of medical examiners is backing the suit and it is similar to others filed in different parts of the state against the chiropractors.

The case against James Daniels, charged with public indecency, was dismissed this morning and the case remanded to the mayor's court from which it came on an appeal. Daniels will pay his fine amounting to $5 and costs. This action was taken after the court had overruled a motion to quash.

ARRANGING FOR CENTENNIAL

Connersville is Projecting Erection of 60-Concrete Shaft For Celebration

W. C. Woodward, director of the Indiana Historical Commission which was created to direct the celebration of the state centennial next year, has sent to John A. Tittsworth, chairman of the Rush county organization, a news letter telling of the activity throughout the state in preparation for the observance of the century birthday of Indiana.

The plan of the commission is to hold celebrations in the counties of the state first and then combine them in an immense pageant in Indianapolis during the fall of 1916.

Connersville is projecting the erection of a sixty foot concrete shaft electrically lighted, as a part of the Fayette County observance of the Centennial. The Connersville News says: "The Centennial Spirit is in the air. The whole of Hoosierdom, next year, is to be turned to a great celebration ground. Up and down the rich soil of the territory novel and striking means will be taken to show that this, that and the other locality wishes to lay its tribute at the feet of old Indiana. That a tower surmounted by great blazing electric lights, would do this beautifully, and would, moreover, stand as a permanent signpost at the city's threshold, strikes the merchants and city patriots who are encouraging the plan as plain and appealing. They will prosecute their work about the city, and it is sure that the material, as well as the sentimental support of the influential people of city and county will be theirs."

Max Erhmann, the Terre Haute poet, is to write the words and Chester L. Fidler, head of the music department of the public schools, is to compose the music of an Anthem that will be sung by the school children of Terre Haute when the Centennial is observed next year. Representatives of the patriotic, fraternal and business organizations of the city held a meeting at Wiley High School recently to take preliminary steps toward the organization for next year's celebration. Terre Haute, as a town, is forty-one days older than is Indiana as a State, and Terre Haute under Four Flags, Spanish, French, English and American—is to be made one of the features of the Centennial week celebration.

Wheeler McMillen of Fountain County is setting a good example for other chairmen, in preparing an address along Centennial lines for use in his county.

Among the new Centennial chairmen secured are: Senator W. A. Yanting, Shelby County, author of the bill creating the Indiana Historical Commission; Mayor Jas. O. Batchelor of Marion, Grant County; Attorney Fred F. McClellan of Muncie, Delaware; Attorney Will Hough Greenfield, Hancock; Attorney John H. Underwood of Bedford, Lawrence; Prof. O. H. Williams, Bloomington, Monroe; Capt. L. C. Baird, Jeffersonville, Clark.

Vice-President Marshall has presented the Commission with an interesting piece of Hoosier literature in a long and striking poem on Indiana, written nearly three quarters of a century ago by Isaac H. Julian, brother of George W. Julian. It came to Mr. Marshall from a friend in California.

Revised Figures Show Air Attack by Germans Most Costly in Lives Lost of War.

FOURTEEN SOLDIERS VICTIMS

Newspapers Comment Bitterly, Declaring London Thought it Was Protected.

(By United Press.)

London, Oct. 14.—Forty-one persons were killed and one hundred wounded in Wednesday night's air raid by German Zeppelins on London. It was officially announced late this afternoon.

Fourteen of the killed and thirteen of the wounded were soldiers. All of the others were civilians. Including the latest attack, there have been one hundred and sixty-seven persons and four hundred and thirty-six wounded in the Zeppelin raids on England thus far.

One Zeppelin, the report stated, was seen to heel over and drop to a lower altitude while the raid was in progress.

The raid was by far the most costly in the loss of human lives of any ever made by the German airships on London thus far in the war.

This afternoon's London newspapers commented bitterly on the raid to the effect that although the authorities had reported they were prepared to protect London, the city really had no protection except the wind and rain.

Earlier reports placed the number of dead at eight and the wounded at thirty-four.

With only fifteen days remaining to pay the fall installments of taxes, the force at the county treasurer's office has figured it out that an average of $13,000 a day must be taken in between now and November 1, if all the money that is due the county is paid.

The last day for paying the fall installment is November 1, which this year happens to be the first Monday in the month as well as the first day. The payment of the fall installment has been exceedingly slow this year and the treasurer's office has visions of one big rush as the final day approaches.

FORCES ISSUE IN ELECTION CASES

Judge Eichhorn Allows Prosecutor Ten Days to Decide What Future Course Will be

DEFENSE WANTS EARLY TRIAL

Three Jurors Voted For Conviction of Bell on First Ballot—Four Ballots Taken

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 14.—Special Judge Eichhorn forced to an issue today the policies that the state will adopt in the cases of over one hundred men indicted with Mayor Joseph E. Bell on election corruption conspiracy charges.

He called all interested attorneys into court and said that because of business at home he wished to know what the state would do. He finally allowed Prosecutor Rucker ten days in which to decide on the course the state would pursue.

Attorney Ryan, for the defense, demanded that the court set the date for an immediate trial of Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman, one of the indicted men, "that the stain of the indictment might be removed from him."

Prosecutor Rucker said that he was worn out and asked time. Judge Eichhorn said that it was not within his province to grant Ryan's request.

Mayor Bell was found not guilty yesterday afternoon on the fourth ballot. Three jurors first voted for conviction, it was stated.

There were indications today that the prosecution might ask that the other cases be dismissed.

The court called before him today Ernest Roeder and James (Bud) Gibson, two confessed conspirators who testified for the state.

He placed Roeder under bond and told both to appear in court Tuesday at 9 a. m. They will probably be sentenced then. Gibson is under $2,500 bond.

The court heard the testimony of Attorneys Ryan and Spann for Bell concerning what fee would be proper for Deputy Prosecutor Joseph Roach. Both testified they thought it should be "at least $5,000." The court allowed Roach that sum. Roach worked two months on the Bell trial. Roach will not take part in any election trials to come.

ness of the session.

John Rodemeyer of Canaan, one of the club's most bald and venerable members; (its very founder, in fact), is reported to have had dealings with a hair-retoring person. The most drastic punishment, some of the outraged members say, (possibly expulsion from the club and relegation to the gloomy vale of hairdom), will be visited upon him if the charge is proved.

To forestall a repetition of the cabaret girl's insult, (they played "I Want to go Back" in pity pats on the banqueting bald one last year), Deacon Elliott B. Bronson, of the Winchester Congregational church, has been appointed chairman of the entertainment committee.

There will be many hairless contests. Prizes will go to the baldest head, the tallest, shortest, fattest, shiniest, pinkest, whitest, reddest.

Not Popular Method
Addressing a Young Men's Republican Club out West, ex-President Taft has sought to formulate the terms upon which Progressives may reunite with the Republican party.
They will be welcomed back, he says
but there is no place in Republicanism for some of the ideas which they have held.

Mr. Taft's intimation is that returning Progressives are to be held
up on dock, like returning tourists
from Europe, while their baggage and their persons are searched for smuggled goods. We doubt if this method will prove popular.

Heretofore there has been no running of the gauntlet, no scrutiny of credentials for men who have sought
affiliation with the Republican party.
Republicanism has been inclusive in its scope. The party has been big enough to contain both Mr. Taft and Senator LaFollette, for example.
There have been, and are, certain essential principles on which Republicanism is founded and to which all Republicans adhere. Orderly constitutional government, protection
through tariffs to American labor
and capital, sturdy defense of American rights, an adequate and satisfactory currency system—these are the essentials of Republican faith
since the days of Fremont. Whoever subscribes to these declarations
and who evidences his faith by support of the Republican ticket is a Republican, nationally speaking.

These things will be found not only in national Republican platforms but in State Republican platforms as well; while in the latter will be many other things of local application
which in no wise detract from the quality of national Republicanism.
For instance, a Republican in Oregon will hold to many principles—
for Oregon—which a Republican in Rhode Island never has subscribed to. Yet both are Republicans, as
Mr. Taft will have to admit.

We do not believe in any other test for Republicanism. Especially we cannot admit the right of any one man—President, ex-President or any other man or any group of men to say who shall enter or re-enter the Republican party or upon what terms. Any Progressive who wishes to join the Republican party
can come in without the indignity of being frisked for concealed principles. Is he a protectionist? Does he believe in a strong foreign policy? Does he favor an adequate national defense? The man who supports these principles is a Republican by all the tests which anyone has the right to impose. In no other way can Republicanism live
and grow; in no other way has Republicanism lived and grown. The doors of the Republican party swing inward and neither Mr. Taft nor any other man can close them or narrow the entrance. Those Progressives have already come in have been warmly welcomed. A like welcome awaits the others who are on the way.

Is Wilson Alone Right.
(Portland Oregonian.)

President Wilson should remember
the fate of Cleveland and beware.
He undertook to "bull" things
through Congress, and though he succeeded there, he split his party
and sentenced it to twenty years
purgatory under Bryan's leadership.
Mr. Wilson may bull his ship-purchase bill through Congress, but his party is very likely to split on the question, and both he and his party
will surely be punished for the factor which will as surely follow.
There is no escape for a President
and a party which go directly contender to public opinion.

That public opinion is opposed to the ship purchase bill is proved by the overwhelming adverse vote of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. These unions are no
mere handful of leaders in business

The above $5000 offer has been made for the past twelve years, every place where the FLORENCE has been exhibited. It stands to reason that if any dealer or stove manufacturer could produce a stove that would do the work that the Florence will do they would not only have claimed the $5000, but would have gotten the benefit of letting the people know what a great stove they have. Come and let us show you why and how the FLORENCE burns the smoke and gases that enables you to get steady heat as if you used natural gas.

The Hot Blast Air Tight FLORENCE

The only absolute Smoke Consuming Stove on Earth. No
Smoke, no Dirt, no Clinkers. Everything is consumed.

Beware of imitations and the unscrupulous who claim to have a stove like or just as good as the Florence. Do not be deceived by such false claims and find it out when too late. A Florence will hold fire longer than any other stove manufactured. Examine the Florence carefully before you buy.

I will give $5000 to any stove manufacturer or dealer who will produce a soft coal stove outside the construction of the Florence that will burn all the ingredients of soft coal absolutely or will heat
the same amount of space with the same amount of fuel as the Florence.

HOOSIER HISTORY

Prepared for the United Press by
the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.
Whig High Tide.

Probably the largest and certainly the most picturesque campaign in Indiana history, marked the high tide of Whig success in the state.
It began in 1835 with William Henry Harrison as its inspiration and ended in 1840 in elevating him to the presidency. Wild enthusiasm and mad fervor, featured by barbecues
and parades in honor of the heroes
of Tippecanoe, grew to a veritable
"delirium of sentiment." The Harrison presidential wave carried Indiana for him by more than 13,000
and elected the Whig candidate for Governor, Samuel Bigger, by more than 9,000 plurality.

Scientists discover the cause of bleeding gums and loose teeth

TEN ROUNDS GO AT GARY TONIGHT

Frank Izzo Meets Artie Armstrong in Bout That is Attracting Much Attention

CALLED "FLY WEIGHT" CLASS

Winner Will Get Match With Zulu Kid of St. Louis, Who Has Beaten Everyone in Sight

(By United Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 14.—A ten round go at Gary, Ind., tonight between Frankie Izzo and Artie Armstrong weighing in ringside at 110 pounds, has attracted wide attention among fight fans throughout the middle west and it is predicted that plans will, shortly be perfected for a championship bout in the "fly weight" class.

Wherever the followers of the game congregate here, the term "fly weight" is being heard more frequently of late. Izzo's work has won for him a big following and he is touted as the best man in the ring today at 110 pounds.

The winner of tonight's bout will have to fight the Zulu Kid of St. Louis, who has cleaned up everything south of Chicago's boundary in the new mosquito fleet. If Izzo wins from Armstrong and it is confidently believed that he is the better of the two, a bout between him and the Zulu Kid would practically decide the fly weight championship.

Since Izzo went ten rounds with Ertel at Milwaukee and nearly got the shade from the new Bantam weight, he has not met a man who was near his equal. Izzo's manager Harry James has announced his willingness to sign up with any fighter who can make 112.

SINGLE G. TAKES NEW RACE MARK

Curt Gosnell is Warned Not to Lay up or Something Worse Than Fine Will Await Him

HARRIE JONES IN THE MONEY

A warning of the judges issued to Curt Gosnell yesterday at Lexington, Ky., evidently had its effects for Single G., went out and won the Cumberland Stakes, $2,000, for pacers eligible to the 2:05 class June 1, last, taking the first heat in 2:02 1/4 and giving the Cambridge City pacer a new mark.

The judges told Gosnell they wanted no such performance as Single G put up last week and intimated that any continued effort to keep Single G good for the 2:04 class next season would meet with stronger punishment than a fine for laying up beats.

In the first heat Beth Clark went out and carried Single G a merry clip to the three quarters, where she was done for, while Fay Richmond, driven by Harrie Jones of this city, paced into the place. Single G won the heat easily in 2:02 1/4. This showed him up and strengthened the opinion of those who believed he could have won last week. Fay Richmond finished fourth in the second heat and third in the final heat, giving the local man third money. Single G was the favorite at $50 to $10 for Fay Richmond and $10 for the field. He paced the second heat in 2:03 1/4 and the third heat in 2:03.

STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which Johnson's Drug Store the popular druggist is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that they run but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't tell Johnson's Drug Store that you want your money back and they will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Miona has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made.

Johnson's Drug Store give their personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that they sell. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

A STUDY IN INDIANA HISTORY

Miss Genevieve Brown, instructor in history in the Rushville high school, read a paper on "A Study of Indiana History" at the last institute of city teachers, and it was of special interest in view of the fact that the Hoosier centennial will be celebrated next year. The paper follows:

It seems all together fitting that the centennial birthday of our state should receive the special attention of every inhabitant of this great commonwealth, and that we school folks, in particular should give the matter our most earnest attention.

Having in mind the observance of the centennial in some permanent form, the legislature of 1911 created a centennial commission to recommend a site and suggest plans for a permanent memorial in the way of some building for general state use. The commission decided upon a library and museum. I thought the plan was applauded almost universally throughout the state, the legislatures of 1913 and 15 refused to grant sufficient funds for a suitable memorial of that kind.

However, that does not mean that this state cannot have a celebration of its birthday and perhaps an ever more lasting benefit accrue from it than from a building or a fair. The centennial commission recommended on historical and educational celebration and that is what I propose to outline in a brief way.

"The history, achievement and growth of our state are inspirational. What of Indiana anyhow? Has our commonwealth or unworthy past? Was it a small matter to struggle with the privations of pioneer life, to brave the terrors of wild beasts and barbarous tribes? Is it of no moment that in all the national wars of the past century Indiana has played a noble part? Is it a fitting matter that in these hundred years endless forests and swamps have been supplanted by fertile fields and prosperous cities, with humming factories and busy commerce? Who can contemplate without swelling pride the transition from the log school house to our unexcelled public school system, the growth of our college and flowering out of the simplicity and culture of our Hoosier life, a literature to which all the world pays homage." Surely a consistent, and interesting study of Indiana's past and present cannot help but prove beneficial and be the means of promoting a more intelligent appreciation of our achievement among us, and beget a deeper love among us for Indiana.

Let us divide Indiana's political history into four periods for our study—First the Pioneer life. Three great nations were contending for the possession of the new world; Spain had colonized about half of Mexico—England had planted her first permanent colonies in Va. and Mass.—France went further north, and made her settlements along the St. Lawrence. The object of each nation was to gain a foothold in the land and the colonists were willing to leave their homes and friends to endure unimaginable hardships to come to a new world of which they knew nothing, because they dreamed romantic dreams of political independence of riches easily obtainable in an exchange of the cheap European merchandise for valuable furs and other Indian commodities.

The French bearing the banner of their great king Louis the fourteenth followed the St. Lawrence to the Great Lakes finally working their way down into the Ohio and Miss. valleys. In the course of time, we are not certain, but early, probably about 1660 some of these wandering French traders, came down the Wabash and other Indiana streams, coming in their canoes, bartering trinkets, blankets and "fire-water" for furs. Robert Cavalier, Sieur de La Salle, the famous French explorer, is the first white man of whose visit to Indiana we have record. He was trying to reach the Miss. river, which he believed emptied into the Pacific Ocean, thus giving a short and easy route to China and Japan. He went down the Ohio river, entirely past our state in 1669-70 but was finally deserted by his companions who had become weary of the hardships of the journey and had slipped off in the night leaving their leader alone and unprotected in a great wilderness. He eventually reached the French settlements in Canada and undaunted by the hardships of his first trip he made a second expedition in 1671. This time he followed the Great Lakes to Lake Mich., crossing the northwest corner of our state. Again he was unsuccessful in reaching the Miss.

From the time of the early expeditions of La Salle to his expedition of 1679 there are no recorded expeditions into Indiana yet we are sure that fur traders were going down its streams in their canoes, and missionary fathers with their zeal still fired from the passing of the Reformation, were enduring untold hardships to raise the cross of Christianity and celebrate mass in this boundless wilderness of which our state was a part. Shut your eyes and let your imagination picture that earliest pioneer life. The country, and wilderness, the only mode of travel by canoe or on foot; no maps, the word of the Indian being taken at all times and how often he proved false! The life of the exploring party was a rough, hard one, and yet surely there must have been an unspeakable charm in their life after all. To float all day in a canoe down these beautiful clear Indiana rivers with their high, heavy timbered bluffs, and at night draw up to shore and make camp by some cold, flowing spring; with game and fish supply unlimited; the thrill of discovery and exploration always upon one; surely even the Pioneer's life could not have been all hardships.

In 1680 La Salle started on the expedition which was to prove successful. Reaching the mouth of the Miss., April 9—1682, he took possession of the whole vast country in the name of his king Louis XIV. After La Salle's explorations the French planned a chain of forts, which they hoped to extend along the entire route from Quebec to Louisiana. Three of these forts, were built in Indiana—the dates are uncertain. On the Wabash river four miles southwest of the present city of Lafayette—Fort Ouiatanon, was erected. Post Ouabache was farther down the river, standing where Vincennes now stands. The other post, Fort Miamis stood on the site of the present city of Ellettsville.

I shall not go on into the English conquest of this French territory though really with that the most entertaining of Indiana's pioneer chapter begins. Think of it I have not told thing concerning the remarkable expedition of Geo. Rogers Clark and his ultimate capture of Ft. Vincennes, nor have I mentioned those blood curdling days of Indiana massacres; nor the events of that great Indiana battle of Tippecanoe. Surely there are many things of interest for us here in the Pioneer Period that we have become a little rusty over, or even never have known.

The Period of Settlement. Who of us was not fascinated as we listened to our grandparents tell of the log cabin days of Indiana. The pioneer settler is always a splendid type, for cowards do not venture as he must, and the selfish will not give up what he must sacrifice. So he is always a man of courage and a man who dares. The early settler of Indiana was of this class. They came from the south and east, many of them sons of good families who wished to try their fortunes in a new country, many of them from the south were poor, who had never had a chance because of the slave labor. They were however often men of courage and ability and needed only the opportunity to make good. The cosmopolitan character of the early population of Indiana undoubtedly had much to do with the present greatness of our state. I have listened with bated breath, to the stories of these forefathers of ours, of how they came some of them in covered springless wagons pulled by oxen over trails that were paths through the wilderness, no bridges, all streams had to be forded which was not only a dangerous proceeding but took an immense amount of time. Others came in flat boats, which perhaps was an easier method of travel in those days than by wagon. But no matter by what way they came, these early settlers came at the peril of their lives because of Indian hostility. Does it ever make you blush a little for your complaints against life, as you ride about in a luxurious Pullman or in automobile over splendid roads when you compare your lot with these who went before you in this state? The houses were made of logs, the interiors were rough, but were usually homelike. The floor was of clay, and most cabins boasted one small window made of greased paper. The fire place used for both cooking and heating, purposes occupied one side of the room and was usually large enough to stand in. The furniture was roughly homemade, most crude and unusually very uncomfortable, I could go on and on in the description of that early life. You have heard your parents tell of their struggle with the age, haven't you, of the various home remedies administered that were at most worse than the disease. Yet there were the husking bees the house raisings and the apple paring parties. The life of the settler was not all hardships. There are a number of interesting topics historically in the period of settlement. The making of the constitution under the Corydon elm. The founding of Indianapolis and the transfer of the capital from Corydon to Indianapolis. The founding of Indiana university. The early methods of travel and transportations might be found especially interesting.

The third historic period is the one of slavery and the civil war. No state in the union was a more glorious history than ours in that period. Our archives are wonderfully rich in interesting material for study of the Civil war. I think perhaps I personally am a little more interested in that than any other of these divisions of Indiana's history. I believe it the most thrilling period of all history in all nations, and how sad it is that so few people know anything of their own state's past in that mighty conflict. Do you know who Indiana's great war governor was? Do you know the location of Camp Morton? Do you know that many men Indiana sent to that great civil struggle? Do you know how many never came back? Do you know what part Rush county played in that war? Do you know your father's regiment, if he served in the war of the great rebellion? Have you ever read the individual experiences of any of your friends in the war? Doesn't this extract taken from the history of one of Indiana's regiment, give you a little more of the individual, personal side of the war than you usually get from a text book. This was before the battle of Antietam. Sept. 17th, 1862.

Good cooking made easy!

Good cooking depends as much on the range as on your skill. A cheap range or worn out stove makes cooking uncertain, and often spoils your best efforts.

Is that fair to you, or to your family, whose health and good humor are affected by what you serve?

The Majestic makes good cooking easy and sure. Made of charcoal iron and malleable iron; it stands rust and wear three times as long as ranges made of ordinary range metal. Put together with cold steel that keeps the joints absolutely tight always, (no putty used.) Lined with extra heavy pure asbestos that holds in the heat and reflects it onto oven. Scientifically designed to maintain uniform temperature with least use of fuel, and to circulate heat evenly to all parts of oven. You turn the baking in a Majestic.

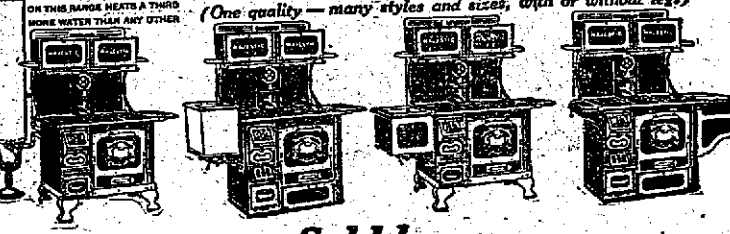

The cost of a Majestic, in service, is less than that of any ordinary range. The fuel, repairs and work it saves, and the years longer that it lasts, more than offset its little extra cost.

The health and happiness of your whole family is effected by the range you buy. Investigate thoroughly. Before you buy any range, come to our store and see the Majestic—we know you will want a Majestic when you see its advantages.

Storm Buggies that Will Keep You Warm, Look Nice and Wear Well. That's the Kind.

Everybody wants a nice storm buggy and I have one for everybody. Some of my competitors are going to quit selling buggies, or at least they advertise they are, and I am going to take their word for it, and just between ourselves, I have been looking for it for sometime, and I have reason for looking for it. Every year I sell more buggies than I did the year before and there is not much room left for competition. You naturally ask the question "How do you increase your buggy business all the time?" and the answer is that I give more buggy value for the money than anyone else, treat everybody alike and treat them right. I can prove I give more value for the money than my competitors as I am handling a storm buggy this winter, formally sold by one of my competitors, and I am selling it for $10.00 less than it ever sold for before, remember the same buggy for $10.00 less. Maybe you bought one last year and paid the extra $10.00. If you did, remember when you need a buggy look around. It has saved lots of vehicle buyers money to buy them of me, and I want you for a customer. The only way you can sell things right, is to buy them right, and not throwing any bouquets at myself, I sure buy right and I want to give you the advantage of good buying. Good buying, and a large volume of business make it possible for me to sell you a buggy from $10.00 to $15.00 cheaper than any one else. It is a simple proposition to figure out how it is done, and when you get ready to buy a buggy, buy where the majority buy, and save.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

TWO ACCIDENTS IN AGRICULTURE

Out of 1,788 Reported to New Industrial Board First Month, Small Number Were on Farms.

AUTO MANUFACTURING LEADS

Classification of Causes Reveals That Many Mishaps Were Due to Stepping on Nails.

Farmers will be interested to know that out of the 1,788 industrial accidents in Indiana reported to the new state industrial board under the first month's operation of the workmen's compensation act, only two of them were agricultural accidents. Although farmers are required to report accidents to the board, they are exempted from the law.

Employees of automobile manufacturing concerns suffered the most accidents, 146 being injured. The steam railroads caused 145 accidents, representing the second largest number of accidents attributed to any one industry. One hundred and fifteen coal mine employees were injured. Through a misunderstanding of the law, the electric railways failed to make reports of their accidents for September, but it is believed that these accidents were numerous.

The classification of the causes of injuries shows that sixty-eight persons were injured by stepping on nails, that 185 were struck by falling objects, that twenty-five were injured by electricity, that thirty-four miners were hurt by falling coal, slate and shale, that gas explosions caused fifteen accidents; that eighty-four persons were injured by slipping and stumbling, that 111 were hurt by hand tools, including hammers and knives; fifty-one persons were hurt by being struck by motor cars and other vehicles, twelve were injured in fires, forty-five were hurt by falls from ladders and scaffolds, twenty-nine persons suffered injuries from animal bites, kicks and runaways and fifteen were hurt in cranking automobiles. Many accidents resulted from the operation of machinery of various kinds.

The report also reveals that two persons suffered the amputation of arms, that two lost a leg and three a foot. Four suffered the loss of their sight. Thirty-one suffered the amputation of fingers. Nine persons suffered fractured arms and fifteen fractured legs. Six suffered fractured skulls. One man's neck was broken, and another suffered a broken back. Burns and scalds caused many accidents.

The oldest person injured was 73 years old. Four of the injured were 72 years old. Twenty-six of the injured persons were 16 years old and under. Fifty-five per cent of the injured employees were between the ages of 20 and 30 years.

The wage was not reported as to 400 employees. Those receiving more than $20 a week numbered 132, so far as reported, and those receiving less than $10 a week numbered 285. Twenty-eight accidents were reported to women and girls whose ages range from 16 to 55 years old. The highest weekly wage received among this class of employees was $11 and the lowest $4. The average weekly wage was $7.28.

The sum of $560.09 was paid within the month to injured employees. Forty compensation agreements were entered into and approved by the industrial board. Two of these agreements were in fatal cases and for a payment period of 300 weeks each. Of these forty compensation agreements five were cases, including the two fatal cases, in which the period of payment was determinable and in such cases a total liability of $8,303.90 was assumed.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—One of the strangest of Chicago's recently numerous "triangle cases" was to be settled today by Judge John J. Rooney, at Chicago Avenue Police court. Clara Menell Mohr, Ogla Giessell Mohr and Joseph Mohr were the defendants. Clara married Mohr in 1910. On July 30, she was sent to the House of the Good Shepherd for passing bad checks. COUNTY AGENTS AIDING IN WORK

Are Assisting in interesting Farmers
in Importance of Seed Corn
Day

TO BE CELEBRATED TOMORROW

"Bigger Crops in 1916" Bids Fair to Become Slogan of Farmers
in Indiana

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—With an eye to Seed Corn day, which comes tomorrow, county agents throughout Indiana were today actively engaged interesting farmers in the need of obtaining good seed corn. Backed by the recent proclamation of the governor, they announced that farmers generally were taking greater interest than formerly in the quality of seed corn.

"Bigger Crops in 1916" bids fair to become the slogan of the Indiana farmer. Urged on by the Indiana Corn Grower's association, the Indiana Grain Dealer's association, and the Indiana Banker's association, farmers are becoming interested in better farming methods.

Governor Ralston's proclamation pointed out that Indiana's corn is its greatest source of wealth, reaching the total valuation of more than $115,000,000 annually. The governor said Indiana's reputation for growing good quality corn is unsurpassed and that it is important that the quality be maintained and bettered.

The Governor endorsed the theory of Professor Christie of Purdue that fully one million bushels of seed corn should be selected in Indiana before the heavy frosts. Christie believes Indiana's corn crop can be increased by 25,000,000 bushels by the proper selection of seed corn.

back. The Austrians are losing fast in Galicia. In Serbia the combined Austrian and German forces were progressing slowly. Strong hopes were felt that the Serbians could hold them back until reinforcements by the French and British arrived from Salonika and from the Russians, either by way of the Black Sea or by way of Rumania.

Unofficial accounts said a Bulgarian division was nearly annihilated when it attempted a Serbian invasion.

It was reported without verification that Italy had decided to join the Balkan campaign.

Berlin, (Via Sayville), Oct. 14.—The last big Zeppelin in England started a re near biggest London arsenal and five million dollars worth of property was burned, an American traveler from London told me today. He said that with each succeeding raid bombs fell nearer the arsenal and during the last one they missed by one only hundred yards. My informant is known in America as reliable.

DREAM OF LITTLE OLD WOMAN FADES

She is Doomed to Disappointment
Because Elyria, Colo., Will Never be More Than Tank Town.

ENGINE MAKES LAST TRIP

(By United Press.)

Denver, Colo., Oct. 14.—When they piled the wheezy and ancient little Colorado & Eastern engine on a flatcar and, closed up shop at Elyria today, they struck despair to the heart of a wrinkled old woman and ended the dream of years that Elyria the tank-town, would some day be a great railroad center.

To Mary Twining the closing of the ill-starred little railroad was tragedy. The C. & E., for all her interest in it and her faith in Elyria, never prospered. The engine was the first ever used in Colorado mountains. If the financiers hadn't rowed about the C. & E., entrance to the Denver union station, Mary Twining's dream might have come true. But Elyria, the engine and Mary Twining have grown old in waiting—and now Mary knows the waiting was in vain.

For fifteen of the 40 years the wheezy engine labored between Elyria and Seranton, her s on Harry was engineer and later her grandson Harry was fireman.

Now the road has "gone bust" and the engine and the two Harrys have gone to Leadville. Mary Twining will stay in Elyria.

Representative F. Davis Oakey of Hartford, who claims the distinction of never having spoken to a barber in his life, will make a speech. He has been warned not to tell any stories with hair on them. Eddie Riggs, formerly with the New York Sun and now with the New Haven railroad, will tell about skullcaps he has met.

Mrs. Dennis O'Neil, who has been seriously ill at her home in South Main street, continues about the same and little hope is held for her recovery.

THE MAUZY COMPANY

offers Suits and Coats for women and misses at prices that will bear the scrutiny of comparison.

There seems to be a tradition throughout the suit and coat business in larger cities that in order to interest any woman in a garment, she must be told that it is worth much more than the price she is asked to pay for it.

Mauzy's suits and coats are different. No visionary or imaginary values are placed upon them. But at the same time great care is taken to see that they are worth all you pay for them, no matter what you pay nor how you make comparisons.

Primarily the style of a garment is of supreme importance to the woman who wears it. Original creations command tremendous prices because of their exclusiveness. Mauzy's styles are copies and adaptations of original styles that obtain their vogue in Paris and New York.

Mauzy's Wooltex suits and coats are all sold with a positive and irrevocable guarantee that every garment is guaranteed for two season's satisfactory wear and that they are all wool. This does not mean the so-called "commercial all-wool" but does mean strictly all-wool.

At the present time our stock is comprehensive, embracing a splendid line of colors, fabrics and models.
